

Table of Contents

Annotations by Christopher Schwarz, Don Williams, Michael Mascelli, Philippe Lafargue and Jonathan Thornton noted in bold

Preface xi

A Key to the Text xiv

The Woods Appropriate for Joinery	3
SECTION I. The Different Qualities of Wood	3
SECTION II. Fashioning and Stacking of Wood	7
SECTION III. The Cutting of Wood	13
The Art of Assembly, its Uses and Proportions	21
SECTION I. Different Ways to Elongate Wood	25
Some Tools Belonging to Woodworkers, Their Different Types, Forms and Uses	29
SECTION I. Tools of the Shop	32
SECTION II. The Tools Belonging to the Workmen	33
SECTION III. Some Tools Appropriate for Cutting and Planing the Wood	34
The Plate II Workbench: How it (Really) Works	38
Make Roubo's 'Winding Sticks'	54
SECTION IV. The Tools for Marking and Making Joints	59
SECTION V. The Tools for Fretwork, and those for Cutting the Straight and Curved Mouldings	76
The Art of Drawing	89
SECTION I. The Way to Take Measurements	89
The Way to Draw the Work on the Plan	93
The Way to Prepare Joinery to Receive Carved Ornaments	95
SECTION II. The Way to Glue Wood	99
The Way to Construct Columns in Wood; Bases, Capitals, Entablature and Pedestals	103
SECTION III. The Way of Gluing Curved Wood	109

Joinery in Furniture, in General, and the Different Types	112
SECTION I. The Tools and Woods appropriate for Furniture	114
Ancient Furniture in General	115
Some Different Types of Seats in Use at Present	119
SECTION II. The Description of Folding Chairs, Stools, Benches, etc. Their Forms, Proportion and Construction	120
SECTION III. Descriptions of all sorts of [side] chairs, their decorations, forms, proportions and construction	126
The Way to Prepare Seats to Receive Fabric Ornamentation	135
Roubo on Upholstery	137
SECTION IV. The Upholstery of Chairs with Caning and the Art of Caning in General	141
The Way to Prepare Seats for Caning	141
Selection of the cane, the way of splitting it and the caners' tools	145
Various Methods of Weaving and Diverse Operations of the Caner	149
Different Sorts of Seating Forms, Proportions & Construction	155
Roubo, Meet Reality: The Making of A Classical French Chairmaker	164
SECTION I. Description of all the major seats, like canapés, sofas, ottomans, etc.	181
SECTION II. Description of Private Apartment Seats, like Bathing-tubs, Demi-bathing tubs, etc.	193
Of Beds in General and the Different Sorts	201
SECTION I. The Beds of France: Forms, Proportions &amp; Construction	202
Canopies of Beds, Commonly Called Pavilions or Imperials; Their Forms and Construction	210
SECTION II. Description of Polish-style Beds, their Proportions, Shapes &amp; Decoration	220
SECTION III. Description of different types of campaign Beds, their shapes and construction	226
SECTION IV. Description of Daybeds, some Cradles and Cots	235
Tables in General and the Different Types	239
SECTION I. Different Forms and Constructions of Dining Tables	245
SECTION II. Game Tables and their different types, forms and constructions	249
Description of a Billiard Table, its form, proportion and construction	249
Description of Gaming Tables, their form, proportions and construction	261
SECTION III. Tables for writing and their different types, forms and constructions	270
Description of Dressing Tables and Night Tables, and others	293
Description of Screens and Windbreaks; their forms and proportions	296
Case Pieces Known under the General Name of Large Pieces	301
SECTION I. Description of Armoires; their decoration, proportions and construction	302
Description of Buffets; their forms, proportions, decoration & construction	309
Description of Commodes; their forms, proportions and construction	315

Of Solid Cabinetry Or Assembly in General	325
SECTION I. Description of the Tools of the Furniture Maker, their assembly and how to use them	327
SECTION II. Basic Elements on the Part of the Art of Turning necessary for the Furniture Maker	331
Some Screw Taps and Wooden Dies used by Cabinetmakers	343
The Machines Appropriate for Making Fluting for Cylinders and Cones	347
Description of the Machine commonly called the tool for waves	358
Reproducing and Using Moxon's 'Waving Engine'	366
SECTION III. Different Locksmithing Tools for the Furniture Maker	378
The Way to fit the iron work for cabinetry	392
The Manner of polishing iron and copper relative to cabinetry	402
SECTION IV. Different Kinds of Solid or Assembled Cabinetry in General	404
Description of different sorts of embroidery frames	405
Description of a printing cabinet	417
Description of Gueridons and Small Tables	427
Description of Different Forms of Desks	430
Necessaries and Other Types of Boxes	437
Afterword to 'Roubo on Furniture'	443
Appendix: André-Jacob Roubo	445
Index	451